Honoring a Life of Service

"Well done, good and faithful servant. Matthew 25:23"

Dan Tarbell

A Life Well Lived

The measure of a life is not found in titles earned or years counted, but in the lives touched, the friendships cherished, and service faithfully given.

Dan Tarbell lived a life of service—to his country, to his fellow veterans, to his community, and to those privileged to know him. His example reminds us that honor is found not only in great moments, but in the quiet, steadfast commitment to doing what is right and serving others with humility.

Though we grieve his passing, we celebrate the enduring legacy of a life that continues to inspire. May we honor his memory by living with the same spirit of service, integrity, and love for others that he shared so generously.

Obituary

Dan will be remembered as a devoted husband and father, trusted friend, tireless veterans' advocate, and generous leader whose legacy continues throughout Clark County and far beyond.
